WASHINGTON.

Murat Halstead's Chances for a Foreign Appointment.

RUSSIA POSSIBLY OPEN, BUT GERMAN SHUT TO HIM.

Senators Teller, Everts and Ingalls Said to Have a Grudge Against Him — The Steamer Yantic Now Free From Yellow Fever — Wolfley Endorsed By Arizona Republicans—Notes.

CINCINNATI, March 22.—The Evening Post prints the following:

"It is reported by a gentleman who has talked with President Harrison that Murat Halstead will not be made minister to Germany, but that he can go to Russia if he so desires. It is also said that should Mr. Halstead be named for either place there would be bitter opposition to his confirmation, and there would be danger of rejection."

"Senators Teller, Everts and Ingalls can hardly forget the terrible attacks Halstead made upon them for voting against the proposed investigation of Senator Payne's election to the senate. The Cleveland senator could easily get the Democrats to vote against Halstead's nomination, and this, with the votes of two Republican senators, would be enough."

Admiral Luce to Be Retired.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Rear Admiral Stephen B. Luce will be sixty-two years old on the 23rd inst., and he has been informed by the secretary of the navy that on that date he will be placed on the retired list, under the age clause of the retiring act. Admiral Luce was appointed a midshipman in the navy from New York on October 19, 1841, and on October 5, 1855, he was made rear admiral. His last duty was as commander of the North Atlantic squadron, from which he was relieved some months ago. Admiral Luce's retirement will cause the promotion of Commodore D. B. Hurnum to be rear admiral.

Nominations.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The president has sent to the senate the following nominations: Henry N. Blake, of Montana, to be chief justice of the supreme court of Montana.

John G. Flemming, of Colorado, to be United States attorney for the district of Colorado.

Miles G. Moore, of Walla Walla, Washington Territory, to be governor of Washington Territory.

Oliver C. White, of Dayton, Washington Territory, to be secretary of Washington Territory.

Present to Ex-Secretary Coleman.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The officials and employees of the agricultural department presented to ex-Secretary Coleman a handsome oak antique hall clock, eight feet high, with chimies and cathedral gong. J. R. Dodge, the statistician, made the presentation address. Professor Riley and others also made remarks. Ex-Secretary Coleman responded in a fitting manner.

The Yantic All Right Now.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The United States steamer Yantic, now at the New York yard, has been thoroughly fumigated and cleaned of the yellow fever, which she took on board during her recent trip south, and will soon go under the orders of Rear Admiral Gherardi, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, to reinforce the fleet in the West Indies.

Not Yet Assumed Their Duties.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The new second and third assistant postmaster general have not yet entered upon their official duties. Mr. Hazen is in the city and expects to take charge of his office next Monday or Tuesday. Mr. Whitfield has returned to Cincinnati, but he is expected to return here within a few days and begin work.

Wolfley's Nomination Endorsed.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Lewis Wolfley, recently nominated for governor of Arizona by President Harrison, received information to-day that the Republican members of the Arizona legislature had forwarded to the president a unanimous endorsement of his nomination.

Washington Notes.

A board of ordinance officers to consist of Lieut. Col. A. R. Buffington, Capt. A. L. Varney, and Capt. Charles Shaler, has been appointed to meet at Rock Island arsenal, Illinois, next Friday to examine and report on plans and material for reconstructing the government dam.

The interstate commerce commission have notified all southern and southwestern railroad companies to appear before the commission on the 2d of April next and show how their export rates are made, and to be heard concerning the best manner of making and publishing rates.

Moth and Cannon Wrestle.

COLUMBUS, O., March 22.—The wrestling match between Tom Cannon, of Cincinnati, and Charles Moth, of Columbus, took place Wednesday night in the presence of 1,500 persons. The first bout was won by Moth in ten minutes, through Cannon's feet slipping when bridged. The second bout was won by Cannon in four minutes, who had secured a bar lock on his opponent. Moth won the third and last bout in seven minutes, through a half-Nelson. The work of both the men was of the finest order, Cannon arousing great enthusiasm through his wonderful headpins.

Ohio Legislature.

Senate—Bills passed: Giving additional power to municipalities; regulating the sale of produce from canalboats. Bills introduced: Abolishing the general term of the superior court in Cincinnati. A large number of local bills were passed.

House—The bill providing that oleomargarine shall be sold as such was passed. The bill to tax the commissions of state, county and township officers was lost.

MEXICAN HAPPENINGS.

Girl Bell Ringers—A Greaser Inventor. Railway Development.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 22.—Recently at Galeana, Nuevo Leon, the first judge ordered that the church bells should be rung no more, whereupon the girls of the town got up into the church tower and rang the bells until they were tired, reform laws or no reform laws. Hurrah for the girls, God bless them.

The silk industry is becoming quite an important one in Guadaluajara. The sugar crop this year in Vera Cruz will be only a third as large as usual.

A railroad is in process of construction to the Sierra Mojada mining district in the state of Coahuila.

Sr. Jose Garcia has asked a patent for his new method of lighting coaches, railroad cars, etc., with electricity.

The $10,000 premium in the Beneficencia lottery, drawn on the 10th in the capital, fell to Rev. Dr. Frias, of Toluca.

A well dressed American named Lynch was jailed the other day in the capital, and $108 in counterfeit eagles found on his person.

During last year the receipts of the Mexican Central railroad were $5,514,501, and expenditures $3,398,137. The business of the company is rapidly increasing.

A DESPERADO'S DYNAMITE.

As Villainous a Piece of Work as You Ever Read About.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 22.—Jim Cooley, a desperado, wildly known in Roane county, went to the residence of Mack Brown late Monday night and called for Brown, with whom he had a quarrel of long standing.

Brown, certain of being shot should he appear at the door, refused to come out, and Cooley, after waiting a few minutes, threw several dynamite cartridges on the roof, from which they rolled to the ground, exploding with such violence as to almost demolish the house and severely injure Mrs. Brown. Cooley was arrested Wednesday, but swore he would kill anyone who would testify against him.

He was taken before a magistrate and drew a pistol on the first witness called. Before he could fire, however, the sheriff shot him in the head without inflicting a serious wound. He was found guilty, gave a straw bail and has fled to North Carolina. A reward is offered for his recapture.

Syracuse Brewing Trust a Failure.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 22.—If there is to be a beer trust in Syracuse it will be under different auspices than those that have been so much talked of throughout the country during the last three months.

The millions of money from England and New York that were to furnish the Syracuse Brewing and Malting company with big capitals have failed to materialize. Wednesday night the time allotted for the consummation of the scheme expired and the scheme itself expired.

A big brewer said Wednesday night that the proposed company was a failure. He had not the figures, but said that the subscriptions to the company's securities in New York city had been disappointingly small. There is talk among the brewers of forming a company among themselves, and a meeting will probably soon be held to take action in the matter.

English Blue Book on Samoa.

LONDON, March 22.—A blue book on Samoa has just been issued by the government. It contains 356 dispatches, covering the period from April 29, 1885, to February 28, 1889, which prove that England throughout the correspondence was in cordial accord with the United States, and that she declined to accede to Germany's request that England should assist and co-operate to restore order in Samoa until the government had learned the views of the American government. On January 29 last Lord Salisbury complained to Count Von Hatzfeldt, the German ambassador, of the language of Prince Bismarck's speech in the reichstag, asserting that England and Germany were hand in hand. Lord Salisbury added that the views of the two governments agreed in regard to the future government of Samoa, but in no other respect.

Baru Burners Arrested.

BALTIMORE, March 22.—The Sun's special from York, Pa., says: Five persons were arrested Wednesday charged with burning barns in the southern part of this county during the past few months. Their names: Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver, aged twenty-seven; Mrs. Aurelia Miller, aged thirty-seven; Miss Cora Reible, aged fifteen; Howard and James Stump, sons of Wesley A. Stump, aged ten and eight years. All the accused except the boys were brought to York yesterday evening and lodged in jail. The mother of the boys was seized with spasms when the constables were about to take them from her, and they were left with her, the father promising to bring them to York tomorrow.

Cuba's New Governor Popular.

HAVANA, March 22.—Governor General Salamanca, since his arrival here, has been indefatigable in his labors, and is constantly on the go, familiarizing himself with the condition of affairs. He has made frequent visits to the jails, hospitals and other institutions. Several decrees, having in view the welfare of the people, have been issued. The whole press and public opinion are in hearty accord with the new governor general, and there is for him only unstinted praise.

Bookkeeper Embezzles $20,000.

SEATTLE, W. T., March 22.—George R. Carlton, bookkeeper for Smith Brothers & Company, sent a note to the firm on Monday, together with the safe keys, saying that he was ill and would not be down that day. Inquiry was made at Carlton's lodgings and it was learned that he had left the city. An examination of the books showed that Carlton was an embezzler to the amount of $20,000. Carlton had been in Smith Brothers' employ but a year.

Escaped Thief By Dying.

BRISTON, O., March 22.—Matt Forgy, who was under indictment for shooting his divorced wife, died very suddenly at his home, near Proctorville, Tuesday. Forgy was to have been tried for his crime at the present term of court, but was too ill to attend.

THE SALT TRUST.

New York Dealers Not Alarmed in the Least.

SOME EVEN CLAIM ITS FORMATION IS IMPOSSIBLE.

The Output and Sale Cannot Be Controlled, as It Is Abundant in All Parts of the Country—Notwithstanding a Syndicate Is Being Formed to Manufacture Salt on a Large Scale.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The news that a big salt trust is threatened does not seem to trouble the salt dealers in this city very much. Many of the dealers say that a trust cannot be formed, as it would be impossible for any body of capitalists to control the output and sale of the commodity, as it is so abundant in all parts of the country, and should a trust be formed it would not last long, as the profits would be small.

Notwithstanding the statements of the salt dealers, a syndicate is being formed in this city for the purpose of going into salt manufacturing on a big scale. The stockholders in the new syndicate say that it is not for the purpose of restricting the output and controlling the price of the article, but to improve its quality and to lower the price. They say, as the dealers say, that the country is too rich in the article to think that money could be made by restricting the supply.

"It is not true a trust is being formed," said F. B. Thurber, who is one of the promoters of the scheme, in speaking to a reporter on the subject. "We are simply forming an association of capitalists to purchase good salt works, and with improved machinery and with an improved process of manufacture we will turn out a better article at a much less price. We will have a capital of $10,000,000 and I am sorry that, as this matter is not yet settled, I cannot give you the names of the principal men in the association."

"It is silly for any one to say that a salt trust can be formed. If, like copper, the supply was limited, the thing could be done, but in this country there are miles upon miles of salt, sufficient to last for untold centuries, and such a thing as controlling the production is preposterous."

THE BARRETT BOYS MUST HANG.

Governor Merriam Refuses to Listen to Pretty Addie Boyd's Appeal.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 22.—Pretty little Addie Boyd called at the governor's office at the capital Wednesday morning and tearfully pleaded with Private Secretary Elliott for an hour for an opportunity to present the case for her lover, Peter Barrett, directly to Governor Merriam. In this she was unsuccessful, as the governor had given orders to allow no one to see him in behalf of the Barrett boys, who are to hang on Friday, unless they brought some new evidence. Governor Merriam received an anonymous letter Tuesday afternoon, threatening his life if he did not commute the sentences of the Barrett boys. This has not affected the governor materially, and it is unofficially announced that the double hanging scheduled for Friday will take place as advertised.

The Edison Syndicate Goes Under.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The World says: The great scheme of Henry Villard, whereby all the Edison electric companies were to be consolidated into one gigantic concern, is reported to have collapsed. Various reasons are given for the failure of the scheme, but probably the true explanation is that the recent decision in Canada, annulling the Edison incandescent lamp patents there has led the advisers of the German members of the proposed syndicate to the conclusion that the Edison patents are not worth the money that is being asked for them.

A Sleeping Car Tax.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 22.—Linn's bill for taxing sleeping and dining cars in this state has passed both houses and will become a law. The bill provides that the state board of equalization shall, at the time of the assessment of railway property for taxation assess for taxation against the owner or owners of said cars the average number of said cars used by railroad corporations each month, and the assessed value of said cars shall bear the same proportion to the entire value thereof that the monthly average number of miles that such cars have been run or operated within one state shall bear to the monthly average number of miles that said cars have been used or operated within and without the state. Such valuation shall be in the same ratio as that of the property of individuals.

A Defendant Goes Free.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 22.—Wednesday morning Henry Hunter, of Tipton, the confessed bigamist, was discharged from jail. Neither of his wives would appear against him, although he was arrested at the instigation of No. 2, who owns a farm, and is well fixed financially. She visited him in jail, kissing him through the bars, and upon his release took him home with her in a buggy. Wife No. 1 lives at Tipton, and would not even make the deposition necessary for his conviction.

Shew His Sire.

GREENSVILLE, Tex., March 22.—John Giddens was shot and killed Wednesday by his son, McGungie Giddens, a boy of seventeen. The boy had frequently asked his father for a pistol, but had been refused. He secured possession of a weapon, and while playing with it, was discovered by Mr. Giddens, who asked for an explanation, and this angered the boy that he turned the weapon on his father, shooting him through the breast.

Mrs. Langtry Fully Recovered.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Mrs. Langtry has now fully recovered from her recent illness, and if the weather is propitious she will leave for Philadelphia in her special car tomorrow. Monday she expects to appear at the Walnut Street theater.

A LONG WEDDING TOUR.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hendrick Hanson Will Go Around the World.

SARATOGA, N. Y., March 22.—The society event of the season was the marriage Wednesday night of Miss Aimee Gardiner Lathrop to Mr. Walter Hendrick Hanson. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian church, by the Rev. Perry S. Allen, assisted by Rev. W. W. Giles, of New York, in the presence of 2,000 invited guests, and was followed by a reception at Annandale, the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Daniel Lathrop. The bride is a niece of Senator Leland Stanford, and the groom a son of Henry B. Hanson, a wealthy contractor. The floral decorations were magnificent. The bridal tour will consist of a trip around the world.

CLEVELAND'S TRIP.

He Embarks From Tampa, Florida, for the Ever-Faithful Isle.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 22.—Ex-President Cleveland and party arrived here at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mr. Bayard and the ex-president were the only two up and dressed when the car was backed down on the Savannah, Florida & Western plover. It was too early in the morning for a demonstration, and very few people were stirring. The party breakfasted in the car, and subsequently crossed the river to South Jacksonville, and proceeded in a private car to St. Augustine, where they were met by over five hundred people. The party then proceeded to Tampa, where it took a ship direct to Cuba.

TO BREAK THE IRON ORE MARKET.

Producers Awake to the New Chicago Steel Mill Combination's Scheme.

CLEVELAND, O., March 22.—The Iron Trade Review says: "The new Chicago steel mill combination is engaged in a scheme to break the iron ore market. The steel combination controls three or four mines. They have also thirteen furnaces which consume nearly a million tons of ore annually. Having secured from two of their own mines 500,000 tons of ore, they asked all other producers to bid against a price they put upon the ore. The other ore dealers were awake to the scheme and refused to sell. They intend establishing prices without regard to the Chicago deal."

Pavement Gives Way.

LOUISVILLE, March 22.—Wednesday morning, while a large crowd of idlers were watching workmen tearing down the walls of the Mammoth Clothing company's building on Market street, near Fourth, the pavement just in front of the store gave way and twenty-five men went down with the stones and bricks. Max Braun, who lives on Portland avenue, had his leg crushed and his arm broken in several places. He will probably die. William Smith, of New York city, was seriously hurt about the head and neck. A young son of Col. T. C. Campbell, was thrown a complete somersault and fell on a mass of brick, cutting his face.

Boomers Continue to Gather.

FURCELL, I. T., March 22.—Congressman C. H. Mansur, of Chillicothe, Mo., addressed an immense mass meeting of Oklahoma settlers at Purcell Wednesday. His speech was an able argument for the prompt opening of the territory and was received with great enthusiasm. When Congressman Mansur referred to the president's proclamation for the speedy opening of the territory there was deafening applause. The speaker urged patience and obedience to the president's proclamation. The would-be settlers are daily increasing in numbers and show a determined spirit.

The Big Four Deal.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Promoters of the Big Four deal, it is claimed, are awaiting a favorable market upon which to spring the announcement of its consummation and gain advantage over the bears. The terms of consolidation are only hinted at on the street. They are as follows: "The Big Four will be made the preferred stock and the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis the common stock of the new company, and the former will receive a small bonus of the common stock."

Becoming Americanized.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Among the passengers on the last steamer from Australia was W. C. Griffin, American consul at Sydney. Speaking particularly of New South Wales, he says the colonists there now have the warmest feelings for Americans and desire to form closer trade relations with this country. They are more American than English in business matters, and, in fact, have adopted as nearly as possible the American system of conducting their public institutions.

Enterprising Mrs. Frank Leslie.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Gen. B. F. Butler has written an article in defense of "trusts," which will appear in Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly, May 1. Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, the week following will answer the general's argument. Then prominent leaders will follow until the subject has been fairly covered. The race question, civil service reform, restricted immigration, etc., will be handled in the same way by prominent public men.

Sarah Whiteling Will Hang.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—The board of pardons Wednesday night passed unfavorably on the case of Sarah Jones Whiteling, the Philadelphia murderess, who made application for the commutation of the death penalty to imprisonment for life. Mrs. Whiteling will be hanged on Thursday of next week.

That Lower California Boom.

CHICAGO, March 22.—There is a story that the present gold craze in Lower California is due to the International Land company, which boomed the thing to get settlers down there, in order to secure the bonus offered by the Mexican government. Frank Hattou and Senator Plumb are said to be interested.

Feather Workers Admit Defeat.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The strike of the feather workers is virtually over. The girls admit their defeat. One hundred of the 250 girls who struck in Cohnfield's factory have returned to work.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY.
 Proprietors.

FRIDAY EVE., MARCH 22, 1889.

What's the matter with the colored Republicans? President Harrison hasn't appointed a single one of them yet to an office.

The Democrats of Paris will hold a primary election next Tuesday to nominate a city ticket. There are five candidates for Mayor and a warm contest is looked for. A nomination is equivalent to an election, and that tends to make the fight more exciting.

The Ripley Bee needn't trouble itself about the Democratic office-seekers of Mason County. They are all right, and are no hungrier than the Republicans of the Bee office. Brother Newcomb wants to be postmaster at that place, and Brother Baird would like to get a position in the consular service.

The New York Sun insists on the Democratic party setting up Hon. Sam Randall as their leader. That would be a surrender of the party's principles of tariff reform. The advocates of lower taxation are in a majority in this country, and the majority are not ready to surrender to the minority.

The Jersey Steel and Iron Company contemplate removing their works from Trenton, N. J., to Chattanooga, Tenn. They employ 1,300 men, who are paid about $1,000,000 wages annually. It is such changes as the above that are destined to make the South the industrial center of the country at no distant day.

What will the Republican newspapers get at next? Some of them have become so contemptible that they are talking of the alleged "uncleanly condition of the White House when the Harrison's took possession of it," insinuating that Mrs. Cleveland was the party at fault. If they haven't anything better to discuss, they would show their good sense by keeping silent.

SENATOR CHACE, of Rhode Island, resigned a few days since, and it is now reported that he did so because he was "firmly convinced that he was elected by the corrupt use of bribery." President Harrison will not follow his own convictions. If he did, he would go and do as "Little Rhody's" Senator has done. He knows he never would have carried Indiana and New York if bribery had been left out of the race.

If Senators and members of Congress can not live on $5,500 a year for seven months' work during the long session, and three months' work in the short session, why do they not resign? There is no law in the United States compelling a man to serve his country at starvation wages, except in times of war. The fact is that any man, thrifty, provident and prudent in money matters, and temperate in his habits, can live well and get rich on the salary of a Congressman.—Louisville Times.

"Their's our sentiments" No talk of raising salaries was heard during Cleveland's administration.

The Republicans, it seems, have placed a genuine, out-and-out tariff reformer in the office of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. Mr. Tichenor is the gentleman. In speaking of the tariff measure introduced in the Senate by the Republicans he says:

"The existing inequalities in the schedule of manufactures of wool, particularly those which discriminate so severely against the consumers of the coarser and cheaper qualities of goods, have been the subject of universal complaint. Nevertheless, this bill augments and aggravates these very inequalities. Many strange, grotesque, contradictory and oppressive things distinguish this bill prepared, it is said, to remedy the defects, anomalies and incongruities which have been from time to time discovered in the tariff schedules."

Again further on he is even more severe in denouncing the measure. He says:

"One of the avowed purposes of the framers of this singular bill was to correct the inequalities and remedy the anomalies and incongruities of the existing tariff, yet, in many ways, they have multiplied and intensified these defects. For example: Actual relief from taxation is not afforded to the masses of the people even as to most of the articles added to the free list, since the duties on the manufacturers into which they enter as materials are either not correspondingly reduced, or not reduced at all, but are in instances actually increased."

This was uttered last fall, but nothing has occurred since to change his views on this subject. One can very readily infer that Mr. Tichenor is not much in sympathy with his party on this great question of the tariff.

CONVENTION CALLED

To Nominate a Candidate for State Treasurer.

The Democratic State Executive Committee met at Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, yesterday, and called a convention to meet at Louisville, May 8th, to nominate a candidate for State Treasurer.

The ratio of delegates was fixed as heretofore, one for each two hundred votes. Barry South, of Frankfort, telegraphed the committee, announcing his candidacy for Treasurer.

A Popular Actor.

Those who fall to go to the opera house to-morrow night will miss seeing one of the leading actors of this country. James O'Neill stands in the front rank, and "Monte Cristo" is his great play. He appeared at Louisville the first of this week, and the Courier-Journal says:

He has, in this play at least, long since passed beyond the reach of adverse criticism. It is difficult to understand how a better characterization could be given in any respect, and so the only thing now to be written is a hearty reiteration of all the commendation hitherto bestowed upon him.

The supporting company is a good one, and, perhaps, the most evenly balanced of any Mr. O'Neill has yet presented here. In fact, all the members of the cast may be commended. The ladies fairly divide the honors. Miss Grace Raven, who has the role of Mercedes, is a beautiful woman, of fine stage appearance, and though but seventeen years of age, displayed an undoubted talent for such roles. She deserves especial mention for her charming performance. Miss Kate Fletcher, the Caliente, must also be credited with an intelligent piece of character work. The remainder of the cast, embracing Messrs. Fleming, Manning, Gould, Leclercq and others, meets, as indicated, every requirement. The play is elegantly mounted, the scene of the escape from the Chateau d'If being considered especially fine—better, perhaps, than on any previous representation.

A SPECIAL received as we go to press states that Stanley Mathews, Justice of the Supreme Court, died this morning. He was sixty-four years of age.

A HERO'S FATE.

[Courier-Journal.]

Upon a lonely island in the Southern Ocean the hero of the Nineteenth century lies dying. It ever there were in later years, a man whose name the Catholic Church should enshrine among its holiest saints, it is Father Damien, the brave and gentle priest who yields his life, not to save that of others, but to smooth their path to the grave. Men have often died to preserve their fellow-beings, but rarely do we record the act of one who voluntarily leaves this world that he may soften the pain attending the closing days of a stranger. Even the church, in its early days of martyrdom, would not demand such a sacrifice as that.

Where the desert rock of Molokai shoots up from the ocean, humanity exists in its saddest form. Those who dwell upon that brief expanse of earth are forever excommunicated by the remainder of mankind. There are no prison walls, but it is more than a prison to them. They may wander from side to side, to the borders of the sea, but they can never pass beyond. There is no thought of escape. It is impossible. Upon each there is a brand, ineffaceable and unmistakable. It makes known to all men who they are. There they must remain, abandoned by hope. Their only task is to wait for death. They can calculate the time of the latter's arrival. Their future is solved. Molokai is the home set aside for the lepers of the Sandwich Islands. It is a diseased colony; a settlement which is most flourishing when its numbers are fewest; an abode whence only the dead depart.

When the young Ben Hur, the type of the good and the brave, met his mother and his sister as lepers, he was not expected to abandon the substantial benefits bequeathed him by his Roman patron, and go with the disease-stricken women. Among the sufferers on Molokai, Father Damien had neither mother nor sister. But he said: "They are friends; they are brothers. They need consolation for body and soul. I will give them both." They put him in a boat and rowed him to the leprosy-afflicted shore. There they left him—one sound in person among many overwhelmed by the weight of physical affliction. The gentle priest came, a light upon the island. To those outcast wretches the odor of Heaven seemed to trail upon his garments. He walked among them, a copy of the Saviour. He was a physician of the soul and of the body. He was the father of the community. From none was obedience lacking. His scepter was the light of love in his eye, and the sacrifice he had made was the title-deed to his throne.

For months this man labored among the lepers. He could save no lives. He could not even prolong them. He could only make death easier. At length, he, too, caught the malady. The little scales and red spots on the skin were plain evidence that the contagion had settled upon him. Usually the sufferer from leprosy lingers many years, but Father Damien's attack was most virulent in type. The cable brings news that he can live but little longer. When he dies the world will lose one of its greatest heroes. Seldom do we hear of such as he.

MILLWOOD.

Miss Sadie Bashars is the guest of Mrs. Aleck Calvert.

Dr. Gordon Smoot and Miss Mattie Dudley and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fant were calling in the neighborhood Sunday afternoon.

The pleasure of meeting old friends at Dr. Dougherty's was clouded by the thought of losing the Doctor and his charming family from our neighborhood. No woman will ever be missed more from a community than Mrs. D. from this, for she has endeared herself to a large circle of friends by her loveliness of character and rare Christian virtues.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Ford gave a delightful reception to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fant of Flemingsburg, Wednesday evening, the 18th. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luttrell, Mrs. Aleck Calvert, Misses Little Owens, Kate Dougherty, Anna and Addie Hand, Mattie Dudley, of Flemingsburg, Sadie Bashars, of Millersburg, Mrs. Lizzie Johnson, of Missouri, Messrs. P. Calvert, Jno. Roe, Buckner and Lucien Goodman, Dr. Gordon Smoot, Dr. Peck, Wm. McClelland, Wm. Walker and Charlie Owens. At 11:30 o'clock twenty-eight guests sat down to an elegant supper. After feasting the inner man, the guests were entertained with games, music and recitations.

The guest of honor, Mrs. Fant, wore a lovely dress of dark blue velvet, trim and bodice with light blue satin petticoat, covered with white tulle and garlanded with pink roses and leaves; magnificent diamond necklace, earrings and pin.

The young ladies were charming in becoming toilette and natural flowers. Mrs. Calvert wore black silk, cut jet ornaments and diamonds. Mrs. Luttrell, serpent's green cloth with Persian trimmings. The boys wore a becoming dress of black silk. Misses Little and May Ford and Miss Olive Fant charmingly assisted in entertaining.

LIBERAL PROPOSITION.

Butler & Tudor, of Cincinnati, Will Remove Their Factory Here if Paid the Expenses of Doing So.

An Opportunity to Add to Our Industrial Enterprises—Now is the Time.

CINCINNATI, O., March 20, 1889.

J. James Wood, W. W. Ball and Others—Gentlemen:

We see by the papers that you are desirous of having manufacturing started in your city, and knowing that Maysville is well located for such industries, we hereby submit to you the following proposition: If there is subscribed and paid up in a committee's hands by your people the sum of $500, to cover the expense of removing our plant—that is machinery, &c.—from Cincinnati, O., to your place, and settling the same up ready for business, we will move our shoe factory to your city.

We have capacity to make two hundred pairs of shoes per day.

We further agree, if the said $500 is paid to us, that after our plant is moved and set up we will render unto the subscribers to said sum on account of the actual cost of removing, and, if anything is left of said sum, that we will owe and pay back to each of them the amount left pro rata in proportion to their subscription. Yours respectfully,

BUTLER & TUDOR.

Mr. John Butler, senior member of the above firm, was in town a short time yesterday afternoon. After consultation with several of the public spirited citizens of Maysville he decided to submit the proposition as given.

The firm's factory is known as the House of Refuge Shoe Factory. They are required to employ the boys and girls sent to the House by order of court and they find this class of labor not at all satisfactory. Most of it is inexperienced. This is the principal reason why they desire to remove their factory. Their proposition is an exceedingly liberal one, and the people of Maysville should take advantage of it at once.

The firm manufacture ladies' and misses' shoes and find a ready sale for their goods. The capacity of the factory is two hundred pair a day, but this can be greatly increased by the addition of but very little machinery.

Their proposition is before the people of Maysville. The money ought to be subscribed before night. If the people of this city ever expect to add to their industrial enterprises some encouragement must be extended to those who desire to locate factories here.

Mrs. Charlotte Theobald filed suit at Covington yesterday against the city of Covington, Kentucky Central Railway Company, South Covington and Cincinnati Street Railway Company, the Covington and Cincinnati Elevated Railway and Transfer and Bridge Company and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for $50,000 damages. She was on the street car that was smashed up a month or so ago by a train at the Pike street crossing in Covington, and was so badly hurt that amputation of one of her legs was necessary.

WALLACE BROS., late of the firm of Purnell, Wallace & Co., will open a cigar factory in the Fitzgerald building on north side of Third street, east of Limestone, early next week. A share of the public patronage is solicited for the new firm.

REV. H. A. M. HENDERSON, D. D., of Trinity Church, Cincinnati, will lecture at the M. E. Church, this city, the 14th of April. Subject: "The Swords of Grant and Lee." Mr. Henderson is widely known as an eloquent speaker, and ought to be greeted by a crowded house.

J. JAMES WOOD, druggist, has received since the first of March over 14,000 pounds of paint, dry and in oil and mixed ready for use, besides a large quantity of varnish and painters' material. He is agent for Eckstein's Pure White Lead and will at all times sell at manufacturer's price.

MR. JAMES EWING, of Dayton, O., and Miss Mary A. Clark, of Waynesville, O., were married this morning by Rev. R. B. Garrett, at his residence on West Front street. The couple wanted to keep the wedding a secret for awhile at Dayton, which was the reason assigned for their coming all the way to Maysville to have the nuptial knot tied.

THE revival services at the M. E. Church seem to have been commenced most opportunely. The members appear to have been ready, and the evenings have been very favorable. The meeting last night was excellent. The spirit of devotion was manifest in every thing, and the labors of the good people were crowned with six additions to the membership. Services to-night at 7:30.

MR. C. W. LURTEY, night clerk at the St. Charles Hotel, has been granted a patent for "Lurtey's Car Puzzle." It is a very simple contrivance, but puzzles some of the most experienced railroad men. One of them has been ordered for President M. E. Ingalls, of the C. & O. Mr. Lurtey has also invented a cuff-holder that is pronounced a big improvement on those now in use. He will apply for a patent.

THE Committee on Police have removed H. B. Hasson from the office of Deputy Marshal, and their action was approved by the City Council at a called meeting yesterday. The charge was misconduct in office. His friends will regret to learn of his trouble. He is a clever fellow and made a good official when sober, but like many other good men he is addicted to over-indulgence in liquor occasionally. John Mangan was appointed to fill the vacancy.

THOMAS MCCLINTOCK's stock barn about three miles north of Millersburg burned some time Wednesday night. It was insured in Boulden's agency for $300, ($100 on contents). When discovered yesterday morning the barn was entirely destroyed and the fence burning within one panel of another barn sixty feet to the south. Mr. J. W. Boulden went to Millersburg on the morning train yesterday to see to the adjustment of the loss. His agency had $1,000 insurance on the barn that was not burned and its contents, so he feels somewhat thankful.

REV. FATHER SMULDERS preached last night at St. Patrick's Church. Subject: "For the World's Reparation and Atonement." The venerable Father, who we understand is the oldest Missioner in the United States, handled his subject well and from appearances will be able to carry on his good work for years to come. The Very Rev. Father McLoughlin will take for his subject to-night: "Authority of the Church." He is an orator of the first-class and all the male members of the congregation should be present to hear this interesting subject discussed. All men are invited to be present. The services commence promptly at 7:30.

HERR VON TISZA

HIS CARRIAGE MADE A TARGET FOR A VOLLEY OF STONES.

Several Persons Injured and a Number of Arrests Made—France Discovers a New Hero in the Personage of M. Antoine. Prince Alexander's Marriage to Be Annulled—Foreign News Notes.

PESTH, March 22.—When Herr Von Tisza arrived at the lower house of the Hungarian diet Wednesday the large crowd that had gathered outside the building groaned and hissed at the prime minister, shouting "Get out," "Resign."

On leaving the chamber, Herr Von Tisza was hooted at and pelted with stones by a group of his opponents.

His carriage windows were smashed in. An attempt was made to stop the horses and overturn the coach. The driver lashed his animals and those who attempted to seize the reins. Dashing ahead at full speed he outstripped the rioters and extricated his master from the peril he was in. Herr Tisza was hit several times, but escaped with some trifling contusions.

Baron Speyer, chief of the detective department, was injured with a stone. Two constables were unhorsed, and had their legs broken.

When the chamber adjourned a turbulent crowd had gathered outside. Herr Pulsky was violently hustled, and Herr Toers, who went to his assistance, received a severe blow on the head with a stick.

Another person was wounded with a stiletto. Premier Tisza escaped unhurt. The military had to be called out. Copies of the Menzies were publicly burned by students. There were several conflicts between the mob and the police, and many arrests were made.

The Revolutionary Congress.

LONDON, March 22.—Notwithstanding the measures taken by the French government against the Patriotic league, it may be accepted as tolerably certain that the revolutionary congress will meet in Paris, although there is a pressure to have the date for its session delayed until October. Much depends upon the proceedings of the proposed meeting of German, Swiss and Austrian Socialists at Zurich the coming summer.

The talk of universal brotherhood and a grand combination of the proletariat of every nation against tyranny will not amount to much, while race hatreds continue to be as virulent as they are now. A French Communist would be more likely to cut a German Socialist's throat, than labor with him for the overthrow of the common oppressor.

France Has a New Hero.

PARIS, March 22.—M. Antoine was enthusiastically greeted on his arrival here Wednesday evening. Five thousand persons were assembled at the depot, and there were frequent shouts of "Vive Antoine," "Vive la France," "Vive la République," etc. There were several deputations and members of the municipal council present. Delegates of various patriotic societies cordially welcomed M. Antoine, who, in the course of his reply, said that to Alsace was due all the honor of his reception. The crowd was so demonstrative in welcoming M. Antoine that great difficulty was experienced in passing through the streets. A banquet will be given to M. Antoine at the Grand hotel soon.

MacKenzie Was Not a Guest.

LONDON, March 22.—Professor Gerhardt, of Berlin, who is in London on a professional visit, was entertained at dinner by Sir Andrew Clarke. Twenty-four leading doctors were present, and two hundred attended the reception held after the dinner. Professor Gerhardt was given a most cordial welcome by his brother physicians.

To Be Annulled.

PARIS, March 22.—The Figaro says the public prosecutor intends to apply for the annulment of the marriage of Prince Alexander of Battenberg, to Marie Louise, the opera singer, on the ground that the prince induced the mayor of Mentone to perform the ceremony by fraudulent declarations.

Pope's Refuge.

ROME, March 22.—At the banquet Wednesday Cardinal Parocchi, the pope's vicar, said that in the future it should become necessary for the pope to leave Europe he would find a sure refuge among the American bishops, who would receive him with honorable hospitality.

Foreign Notes.

Two fishing boats were swamped in a gale off Stornoway, and the twelve occupants were drowned.

Three more students have been arrested at Berne, for complicity in the illicit manufacture of bombs.

Princess Irene, wife of Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the emperor, has been delivered of a son.

Two British ironclads have sailed from Gibraltar to join the squadron at Tangier. The sultan's reply to England's claims is daily expected.

Mr. O'Mahoney, editor of the Tipperary Nationalist, has been sentenced to two months' imprisonment under the crimes act for intimidation.

There is every probability that the engagement of the hereditary prince of Hohenzollern to one of the young princesses of Wales will shortly be announced.

The Berlin Volkszeitung, which was recently suppressed by the government under the Socialist law, has been released under the title of the Zukunft.

Sir Thomas Gladstone, Bart., is dead. Sir Thomas, who was the only surviving brother of the Right Hon. William E. Gladstone, was born July 25, 1804.

King Alexander has written to his mother, ex-Queen Natalia, to remain absent from Serbia, as, he says, her presence in the country would render his position a difficult one.

The pope's income for 1888 amounted to $2,520,000, of which $1,800,000 came from the St. Peter's Pence, and $660,000 from the interest of moneys invested out of Italy. The outlay of the Vatican only amounted to $1,700,000. This is a highly satisfactory balance sheet, but it does not take into account the sum of $2,140,000 which his holiness received in money and presents during his jubilee.

The Cologne Gazette says that after a cordial correspondence Emperor William has accepted Queen Victoria's invitation to visit England, on which occasion naval maneuvers will be held in his honor.

In the house of commons, Right Hon. Henry Matthews, secretary of state for home affairs, announced that counsel for the Parrellites would be allowed the same freedom of access to convicts as is granted to counsel for the Times.

England has issued a blue book on Samoan affairs. The British prime minister says the views of Great Britain and the United States are identical as to the future government of Samoa is concerned, but not otherwise.

The aboriginal inhabitants of Biarritz are considerably astonished and diverted by the demeanor and costume of the Highland gillie who sits on the box of Queen Victoria's carriage and the individual who succeeded John Brown as her majesty's personal servant, being a near relative of that deceased domestic.

The North German Gazette announces that the emperor and empress will spend the summer at Potsdam, where they will be visited by the czar, the emperor of Austria and the king of Italy. The czar will be the first of the royal visitors, and King Humbert will follow Emperor Francis Joseph. The paper makes no mention of Emperor William's intention to visit England.

Leah Paulus, of Akron, O., complains to the divorce court that her husband hasn't changed his underclothes since last fall. She might love him in cold weather, but in summer the case is hopeless. She wants the divorce before fly time.

Charles O. Minnick died at Lincoln, Kan., Wednesday, in his ninety-first year. He was born and raised in Baltimore, and was in the volunteer service of the United States during the war of 1812 with Great Britain, and took part in the battle of Baltimore in 1814.

Hyman & Company, Monroeville, O., millers, assert that they shut down their mill because repairs were needed by the machinery, and not by their finances, as George Drake, Esq., has maliciously remarked. They therefore request him to furnish $10,000 with which to patch their injured credit.

Richmond, O., Telegram tells that upon the night Miss Josie Saunders died in a Cincinnati hospital, a few weeks ago, her form, attired in a nun's garb, appeared to a friend in that city with the murmured words, "Short-lived, short-lived." The friend did not then know that Miss Saunders had joined the Catholic church.

Fanny Davenport, the actress, appeared in person to the governor of Tennessee for the release of Charles Talbot, the Memphis hotel clerk who stole her diamonds two years ago and was sent to the penitentiary for six years. It was granted. After his release Talbot called upon Miss Davenport who spoke kindly to him and gave him $100 in money with which to begin life anew.

Another Tragedy in Lee County, Kentucky. WINCHESTER, Ky., March 22.—Bob Powell, a desperado of Lee county, was wanted for the crime of arson, and a warrant for his arrest was placed in the hands of Walker Jameson, sheriff, who summoned Albert McClary to assist him. On their approach last Saturday, Powell armed himself with a Winchester rifle and fled to the woods, where from ambush he fired upon the posse, instantly killing McClary. Before he could fire again he was secured and lodged in the Beattyville jail. McClary is a member of one of the first families of the mountains and grave fears of lynching are entertained.

Brough on Long Island Sound.

NEW LONDON, March 22.—The steamer Old Colony, of the Fall River line, which left New York Wednesday evening, after proceeding as far east as Watch Hill, was obliged to put back to this place for harbor, anchoring at 9 o'clock this morning. The officers say it was the roughest night they ever experienced in the sound. The passengers went to Boston by rail.
